

Why seek capital from local investors?

- Angel investors aren't interested. Over 80% of small businesses are not "high growth" opportunities.
- Banks have increased requirements for loans, making them harder to get.
- Over 65% of businesses end up "self-financing", using credit cards or savings.
- Small business owners often need relatively small amounts of cash for critical needs or immediate opportunities.